

Recent Scholarship:

Books:

Land Wars: Property, Community and Land Use in an Interconnected World (with John G. Francis), Lynne Rienner Publishers, 2003.

Americans with Disabilities: Implications for Individuals and Institutions, ed. Leslie Francis and Anita Silvers, Routledge, 2000.

Chapters in Books:

Francis, Leslie P., M.P. Battin, J. Botkin, J. Jacobson, and C. Smith. (2004). "Research Ethics and Infectious Disease: the Moral Significance of Communicability." IAB, Sydney; forthcoming in Hayry, et al.

"Disability," in Frey and Wellman, eds., A Companion to Applied Ethics (Blackwell's 2002).

Articles:

"Employment and Intellectual Disability," 8 Journal of Gender, Race & Justice 299 (2004).

"Legitimate Expectations, Unreasonable Beliefs, and Legally Mandated Coverage of Experimental Therapy." Indiana Health Law Review 1: 215-251 (2004).

Smith, Charles B., Battin, MP, Botkin, J, Francis, LP & Jacobson, J. (2004). "Are there Characteristics of Infectious Diseases that Raise Special Ethical Issues?" Developing World Bioethics 4:1, pp.1-16.

"Global Systemic Problems and Interconnected Duties," Environmental Ethics 25: 115-128 (2003).

"Decision making by and for patients with Alzheimer's and other dementias." Georgia Law Review 35: 539-592 (2002).

"Alzheimer's Disease: An Issue for Women's Health Care." (2001) Journal of Gender-Specific Medicine 4: 6-9.